As the "Medicine Whirlwind" of "Young Buffalo, King of the Wild West." Kawinga also healed raised scalps and was successful as an actor "Medicine Man."

When the papoose was born, three weeks ago, Kawinga, whose English name is Miles Turner, said to his squaw that the infant had come into the world to take his place when he was gone and that he didn't propose walting to be an old man before giving way to the papoose. His philosophy was discounted by his squaw, who assured him that the palefaces would brand him a coward if he disposed of himself.

Kawinga, who is only twenty-one years old, was more despondent than ever after the show last night. He went to his wife and embraced her. "I had a dream last night. He went to his wife and embraced her. "I had a dream last night. He went to his wife and enbraced her. "I had a dream last night. He went to his wife and enbraced her. "I had a dream last night.
